Subject: Request for extension

Dear WCG

I respectfully request that an extension of two months be granted to us, as Interested and Affected Parties (I&APs). This constitutes a far more reasonable and equitable response period, particularly given that the HWC meeting took place on 14 May 2025, while Cindy Postlethwayt's response was only issued six months later, on 14 November 2025.

To ensure fairness and a level playing field, I&APs should be afforded the same amount of time to respond as was taken by the WCG's consultant.

It is unreasonable to expect an I&AP, without access to the resources available to the WCG and its consultant, to respond within 30 days, while the WCG and its consultant effectively had 180 days.

Kindly also provide access to your public participation policy, as the current imbalance in timelines appears to advantage the government in a manner that seems unjust and potentially inconsistent with constitutional principles of fairness and administrative justice.

I trust that this request will receive your positive consideration.

Kind regards.
